

THE THREE NEW YACHTS OF SEABOURN

Seabourn Odyssey and “New-Builds”

FACT SHEET

DESCRIPTION:

The Yachts of Seabourn will increase its capacity by more than 200 percent with the addition of Seabourn Odyssey in June 2009 and two additional new-builds to debut in 2010 and 2011. Like the current fleet, all three will be ultra-luxury, all-suite vessels accented by extraordinary levels of personalized service, with nearly one staff member per guest. The smallest vessels currently under construction by a major cruise line, all three new additions will make the most of their intimate scale, with yacht-like atmospheres and the ability to access uncommon and interesting destinations.

Virtually identical from stem to stern, each new addition to the Seabourn fleet will carry a maximum of 450 travelers. Each vessel will offer all-suite accommodations, menus by renowned celebrity Chef Charlie Palmer, and an open-bar policy throughout.

LAUNCH DATES:

The three new Yachts of Seabourn are scheduled to launch as follows:

- Seabourn Odyssey: June 24, 2009, with an inaugural season departing from Venice, Italy, and ending in the Caribbean. The yacht will also host Seabourn's first-ever World Cruise in January 2010.
- New-build 2: Spring 2010
- New-build 3: Spring 2011

SPECIFICATIONS:

Seabourn Odyssey and her sisters will be virtually identical from stem to stern, with specifications as follows:

- 32,000 GRT
- 650 feet long
- 84 feet wide
- 19 knots cruising speed
- 11 decks

- 6 guest elevators
- 450 guests (double occupancy)
- 333 crew
- Bahamas Registry
- Built at T. Mariotti, Genoa, Italy

ALL-SUITE ACCOMMODATIONS:

Each new Seabourn yacht will boast 225 superbly appointed luxury suites, ninety percent of them (197) with verandas. Suites will be spacious, with 13 categories ranging in size from 295 to 1,182 square feet of indoor space. Verandas will add an additional 65 to 505 square feet of outdoor living area, spacious enough for private al fresco dining. All suites will have expansive ocean views framed by either a picture window or the glass doors of the veranda.

Guests can look forward to comfortable living areas and one queen-size or two twin beds. Suites are outfitted with walk-in closet with personal safe, interactive flat-screen TV with music and movies, makeup vanity, and comfortably sized granite bathroom with separate bath and shower, soaps by Hermes and L'Occitane and bath products by Molton Brown. A personal bar and refrigerator will be stocked according to guest preferences, coordinated before arrival. All suites will be maintained to the highest order by personal suite stewardesses who set a welcome scene with touches such as drawing a warm scented bath from the Pure Pampering therapeutic bath menu upon request or sprinkling rose petals on the bed at night.

DINING:

The Yachts of Seabourn have engaged celebrity Chef Charlie Palmer to create menus for dining aboard its three new yachts. A two-time James Beard Award winner and the creative force behind 11 highly acclaimed restaurants from New York to Las Vegas to Sonoma, Chef Palmer's innovative use of fresh, seasonal ingredients and eye-catching presentation of regional specialties has long been admired on the three existing Yachts of Seabourn, and will doubtless be so on the new vessels. Indeed, Palmer's ever-changing menus have earned The Yachts of Seabourn the prestigious International Five Star Diamond Award for 13 consecutive years, as well as ranking as the Top Cruise Line Food in Condé Nast Traveler's 2007 Readers' Choice poll.

All three of the new Yachts of Seabourn will include the following dining venues:

The Restaurant: A fine-dining and open-seating gourmet experience, with the capacity to seat all guests. Most evenings, attire is just "jacket required," however special nights feature candlelit black tie optional dining.

The Colonnade: Exclusive to the Odyssey-class vessels will be this indoor/outdoor restaurant. Here, chefs serve breakfast, lunch and dinner in an open-kitchen style, so guests can look on as they prepare each meal to order. Dinners will have different themes, offering guests an ever-changing culinary experience.

Restaurant 2: An avant-garde dining experience serving carefully selected wine and food pairings in flights of small plates and occasional themed dinners.

Patio Grill: For casual dining, the poolside Patio Grill serves breakfast, lunch and dinner, weather permitting. This is also the source of freshly baked cinnamon buns in the morning and gourmet pizzas through the afternoon.

In-Suite Dining: An extensive menu of gourmet breakfast, lunch and dinner items is available around the clock. During dinner, guests can order from The Restaurant menu and have their meals served course-by-course in the privacy of their suites or verandas.

BARS & ENTERTAINMENT:

Six lounges and bars invite guests to gather throughout the day and evening to share laughter, drinks and tales of the day's adventures. An open-bar policy ensures there are no chits to sign. And, of course, gratuities will neither be required nor expected.

During the day, lounge poolside while savoring a frozen fruit sorbet, a beverage of your choice and a chilled towel. Challenge other guests to a game of bridge or enjoy a cooking demonstration with the chef. Water-ski or sea kayak from the onboard marina, or savor Caviar in the Surf, delivered with Champagne on a surfboard bar.

The fun doesn't stop when the sun goes down, as each evening offers an array of entertainment options. There's a six-piece band and cabaret in the Grand Salon; blackjack and other gaming in the casino, classical guitar in the Observation Bar, and dancing in The Club nightly. The Yachts of Seabourn also offer classic and first-run movies during Movies Under the Stars, complete with popcorn.

Then there is Dessert Under the Stars, with fine treats from the chef. And on special nights, a romantic evening of Dancing Under the Stars.

SPA AT SEABOURN:

Each of the new Yachts of Seabourn will offer a sanctuary of health and fitness known as The Spa at Seabourn – each spanning two decks, the largest on any ultra-luxury vessel at 11,400 square feet.

One highlight of the new spa will be two Spa Villas located on Deck 10. These spa villas will be available for guests to book along with their treatments, and will feature a treatment area large enough for duet treatments, complete with shower; a bathtub big enough for two; a private balcony for sunbathing; a full living room area; a double daybed for relaxing and even a dining area where healthy snacks can be enjoyed.

The two-deck spa will feature seven treatment rooms on Deck 9, including a “Garden Villa” room with a spa tub on the balcony and two treatment beds for indoor or outdoor partner massages and a “dry float” room with a heated waterbed-like device that is used in treatments such as seaweed wraps and other rejuvenating body wraps.

The spa will also feature an outdoor deck space for spa guests to relax in the sun, a hydro pool, a relaxation room with heated loungers, two unisex herbal steam/sauna rooms, and also separate steam rooms and saunas in each of the men’s and women’s areas.

The fitness room will feature cardio and strength equipment, a studio for fitness classes, a Kinesis Wall and an area for Thai massages. A full-service salon will offer full range of services, including a “nail buff bar” which will serve as a social area offering manicures and pedicures, smoothies and other drinks.

Guests will be able to indulge from a collection of treatments gleaned from ten Eastern cultures, from Chinese reflexology to aromatherapy. Expert therapists will custom design treatments to match guests’ desires. Personal trainers will be available to develop a customized workout plan using state-of-the-art fitness equipment, including cardio, strength and weight training.

WORLD ODYSSEY:

Odyssey will host Seabourn’s first world cruise, a 108-day voyage departing in January of 2010 and visiting 42 ports from Ft. Lauderdale to Athens. Highlights will include five exclusive complimentary events for full World Odyssey guests, ranging from whale-watching in the Sea of Cortez to a Chinese bazaar in Hong Kong, in addition to seven complimentary experiences for all guests on board such as an exhilarating Maori cultural discovery experience in New Zealand and a visit to the elaborately carved wooden Sanctuary of Truth in Pattaya, Thailand.
